 The value presented as service fees and charges, credit-related fees and commission was reported in the prior year financial statements as part of "Other income". Considering the nature of the income (see note iii) and in line with the requirements of IAS 1.
The fee and commission presented above relate to financial assets and liabilities measured at amortised cost. These figures excludes amounts incorporated in determining the effective interest rate on such financial assets and liabilities.

Loan management fee relates to fees for loan processing and fee on overdraft facilities granted to customers.

(ii) Performance obligation and revenue recognition policy

Fee and commission income from contracts with customers is measured based on the consideration specified in a contract with a customer. The Bank recognises revenue when it transfers control over a service to a customer.

The following table provides information about the nature and timing of the satisfaction of performance obligations in contracts with customers, including significant payment terms, and the related revenue recognition policies.

For the accounting policy for fees and commissions in the scope of IFRS 9, see note 4(b).

Type of Service	Nature and timing of satisfaction of performance obligations, including significant payment terms	Revenue recognition under
Retail and corporate banking service	The bank provides banking services to retail and corporate customers, including account management, provision of overdraft facilities and servicing fees. Fees for ongoing account management are charged to the customer's account on a monthly basis. The rates for the different class of accounts are set on an annual basis. Transaction-based fees for interchange and overdrafts are charged to the customer's account when the transaction takes place. Loan servicing fees are charged once when the transaction takes place.	Revenue from deposit related services are recognized overtime as the services are provided. Revenue from credit related services are recognized at a point in time when the transaction takes place.

(iii) Service fees and charges include fees on customer requests such as issuance of letter of indebtedness, charges on issuance of drafts, seals, stamps, reference letters and signature confirmation letters. These are recognized at the point in time when the transaction takes place.
